

The Indiana state No Call list has been extremely favorable to us. It has reduced the number of irritating calls to a bare minimum. We love it. We would be against any Federal law that would limit it's effectiveness.

If only spam email could be limited the same way.